

Envy

1 Look at the picture on pages 82 to 83 of the EMOTIONARY.

- Describe the two characters.

- How many differences can you find between them?

2 What do you think the characters are thinking? Write your answers in the speech bubbles below.

3 Read the text on page 82 of the EMOTIONARY and write T (true) or F (false) next to the sentences.

- Jealousy and envy are the same thing.
- Jealousy and envy stop you from being happy.
- You feel jealous when someone tries to take something from you that is yours.
- You feel envious when someone has something that you want.
- Feeling envious makes you feel sad.

● Now rewrite the false sentences.

4 Answer the questions about envy and jealousy.

● What do they have in common?

● What is the difference between them?

● How do they make you feel towards the people around you?

5

In the text on page 82 of the EMOTIONARY it says that envy and jealousy feed off each other. If something feeds off something else, what happens to it? Tick the correct answer.

It gets stronger. It is destroyed. It becomes like the other thing.

● Read the definitions below and add the phrases in the correct place.

to feed back to bite the hand that feeds you to feed into

to feed one's face

to eat a lot → _____ to put something into something → _____ to act badly towards someone who is helping you → _____ to give someone the information

they need to know → _____

6

What do you think Danny might feel in the following situations? Write J (jealousy) or E (envy) next to each situation.

He has a new baby sister.

Danny's best friend gets a skateboard as a present.

One of Danny's cousins comes to live at his house for a year.

All Danny's friends have new jeans.

Danny's mum has gone back to work after being at home for two years.

7

Envy and jealousy go hand in hand. This means that they are closely related. What other things go hand in hand? Complete the pairs.

● lock and _____ ● shoes and _____

● bucket and _____ ● moon and _____

8 Read what Harry and Edie say and answer the questions below.

Harry

My best friend is called Matt. He's good fun! We do everything together and we have a great time. But now his cousin Sam has come to live with him for a year. They spend the whole day together. Sometimes I go and play with them but they have these private jokes and games. I don't like Sam. I don't understand what Matt sees in him.

My cousin Poppy has red hair. Her mum puts it in plaits and buns and ponytails for her. She buys her some really cute hair clips too. It's as if she wants the whole world to see what lovely hair she has. It's not fair. Why can't I have hair like that?

Edie

● Which of the two people feels jealous? Which feels envious?

● What is Harry afraid will happen to his relationship with Matt?

● What makes Edie sad?

● Do you think either of them could do anything to change the situation? If so, what?

9

Read the text and draw a picture to go with it. Then answer the questions.

Leo is sad because he is shorter than Amy. Amy is sad because Aisha has a toy that Amy wants. Aisha is sad because Henry is eating an ice cream which looks delicious. Henry is sad because Clara has a backpack he really likes. Clara is having fun with her skateboard.

● Are any of the children happy? Who?

● Do you think the children are enjoying what they have got? Why / Why not?
